ELIZABETH CITY WILL SEE THE NC-4

Commander of Transatlantic Naval Plane Ordered to Fly Here

Elizabeth City probably will have an opportunity to see and inspect the giant transatlantic naval airplane NC-4, the very same which was the first American airplane to cross the Atlantic ocean.

The NC-4 will make a flight from Norfolk, Va. to Charleston, S. C. some time in October. Acting Secretary of the Navy Benson has requested the Commander of the NC-4 to make a detour on his flight, so as to bring the big airplane over Elizabeth City.

Hon. J. C. B. Ehringhaus of this city is responsible for Admiral Benson's courtesy. Mr. Ehringhaus thought it a reasonable thing to ask Uncle Sam to let his wonder airplane fly over Elizabeth City and he personally took the matter up with North Carolina Senators and Congressmen. And so the NC-4 will make the flight from Norfolk to Charleston via Elizabeth City, if the commander of the airship doesn't take a notion to be contrary.

GUS. POTTER SPARED SENTENCE ON ROADS

Judge Takes Pity on Man Who Didn't Know He Had No Right To Sow Poison

Augustus Potter, the Salem township farmer who was sentenced to four months on the roads for putting poison on wild strawberries and thereby nearly causing the death of a little Negro boy, will not have to serve his sentence. The sentence was changed to a fine of $150 by Judge Bond in the Superior Court here Saturday and neighbors of Potter made up the amount of the fine and let Potter go home to his wife.

Potter's crime was due to ignorance. He thought he had a perfect right to put poison on anything that was his. He probably thinks to this day that the law did him a grave injustice in holding him responsible for the illness of the child who trespassed on his place and picked the poisoned berries from a ditch bank. But Potter is nearly 60 years old and he has a wife who is devoted to him. The state could not have gained anything by incarcerating him and Potter would not have been a better man by incarceration. His neighbors felt this and a delegation headed by Thos. Meads came up to court Saturday and pleaded with the Judge in Potter's behalf. Judge Bond, ever kindly disposed, ever tolerant of human weakness and human folly, changed the sentence to a fine.

OLD TRAP NEWS

The Old Trap Cotton gin which is a system gin, and a very up to date plant owned and operated by Hubbard & Co., and managed by M. N. Toxey, one of the stock holders, is now being cleaned up and the boiler put in shipshape, getting ready to open a market on cotton in the near future. It is not certain yet whether they will start the price at 12 1/2 or 15c per lb. Mr. Toxey, the manager is clever to deal with and will give every one a square deal. Hubbard & Co. in connection with their cotton gin run a saw and grist mill and grind regularly every Saturday, unless Judge Jones, the miller, is called away on business or pleasure trips.

The Old Trap blacksmith and wheelwright, Mr. D. M. Cartwright who now and then gets a job right and always makes his price bright motored over to Elizabeth City Tuesday in his little Chevrolet touring car, carried with him one of the prominent citizens of this place to do some autumn shopping and had a very pleasant trip.

Mr. W. B. Harrison an expert log wagon man, accidentally fell from his wagon on Tuesday, September 23rd, one of the wheels striking him and putting him almost out of business for awhile. Had it not been for a gentle team which stepped when their driver fell off his body might have been crushed under the wheels of the heavily loaded wagon.

Mrs. Blanche Burgess went to Elizabeth City Tuesday to accompany her only daughter, Helen W. Burgess, who was enroute to Greenville, N. C. where she will enter the Eastern Carolina T. T. School.

"I Spent a $1 on Rat-Snap and Saved the Price of a Hog."

James McGuire, famous Hog Raiser of New Jersey says, "I advise every farmer troubled with rats to use RAT-SNAP. Tried everything to get rid of rats. Spent $1 on RAT-SNAP. Figured the rats it killed saved the price of hog." RAT-SNAP comes in cake form. No mixing with other food. Cats or dogs won't touch it. Three sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by CITY DRUG STORE, CULPEPPER BLDG. CO., and G. W. TWIDDY. A.22-4t

Messrs. W. K. Leary, B. G. Gregory, T. D. Forbes and Misses Lydia Forbes and Bertha Leary are away from home this week attending a revival meeting at Chincoteague, Va., conducted by the Rev. Ledelle. Miss Ruth Leary of Pasquotank, Miss is also with the party. She is visiting relatives there whom she had never seen.

Mr. A. N. Staples, a member of the firm of Needham and Staples and mail carrier from Old Trap to Camden, also superintendent of the road work in Shiloh township, is ill at his home on Water street. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Master Eddie Cartwright, the little ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cartwright is slightly recovering from an attack of typhoid fever, of about twenty days.

Mr. Lorenzo D. Case of Elizabeth City, N. C. will address the people of Old Trap about Tuesday night, September 30th. A large attendance is expected.

MOYOCK WELCOMES CURRITUCK VETERANS

Veterans of Two Wars Enjoyed Hospitality of Northern Currituck Metropolis

With its customary enterprise and hospitality, Moyock, the northern metropolis of Currituck County, entertained Currituck veterans of two wars last Friday, Sept. 18.

Nearly a hundred soldiers, sailors and marines of the World War were guests of the occasion. Only six veterans of the Civil War were there, the ranks of the survivors of that past century struggle having been rapidly thinned within the past few years.

A feature of the Moyock Welcome was a sumptuous dinner served free to soldiers and visitors in the big auditorium of the Moyock High School.

Eyesight Is One

of the most precious of all human possessions. It is estimated that there are about 300,000 blind persons in the United States. It costs about $15,000,000 each year to support them. Probably 75 per cent of this blindness is due to two causes; sore eyes at birth and neglected eyes during school life. Accidents and careless habits in later life causes most of the remainder.
